

A Secure and Anonymous Place to Report Bribe Requests to Help Combat Bribery

1. Are you reporting an incident in which a government official or a representative of an international or regional organization requested or suggested that you pay a bribe?
2. At the time of the incident, were you acting as the representative of a business, or as a private citizen?
3. Please indicate the year in which the incident occurred.
4. In what country did the incident occur? (If the bribe request originated within a foreign embassy, please select the name of the country represented by that embassy.)
5. Who requested the bribe?

Judge or representative of the judiciary
Military
Police
Government Official

6. If the request for the bribe was recurring (i.e. a bribe was to be provided more than once), approximately how frequently did the request recur in a given year?

Not a recurring request
5 times or fewer
6-20 times

7. Which best describes the primary form of the bribe requested?

Cash or cash equivalent (hong bao/red envelope, "lunch money", gift certificate, etc.)
Hospitality or entertainment (meal, ticket to sports or other event)
Gift (company products, jewelry, etc.)
Travel (for other than business purposes)
Additional business
Sexual favors

8. Please indicate the primary nature of the requested bribe.

Item of value in exchange for timely delivery of a service to which you are entitled
Item of value in order to receive payment for services already rendered
Item of value to avoid action being taken to harm you or your business' interests
Item of value in exchange for receiving inappropriate favorable treatment

9. Value of the requested bribe? U.S. dollars (up to more than $500,001)

Less than $20
$20-$100...
Difficult to assign monetary value to requested bribe

Submit

Available in: Arabic, Bengali, Chinese, English, Farsi, French, German, Hindi, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Malay, Polish, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Swahili, Thai, Turkish, Urdu, and Vietnamese.

- ⊗ BRIBELine's purpose is to collect information about the entities around the world that solicit bribes. BRIBELine focuses on demand-side bribery only; we do not request information about those who pay, or offer to pay, bribes.
- ⊗ BRIBELine does not collect or request any names. The information we collect will not be used to take legal or investigative action. Aggregate information will be made public to shine a spotlight on trouble spots so that they might be improved, and to allow companies to better manage risk.